Grayling, Mich. Oct. 2, 1925. Mr. O. P. Schumann, Editor. Crawford Avalanche,

Dear Mr. Schumann

Dear Mr. Schumann:

I read Mr. J. H. Stoelker's letter of the 30th published in the Avalanche this week, and from my point of view Mr. Stoelker is not very well posted on the fishing conditions in Lake Margrethe during the winter months, inasmuch as he places all his stress on spearing, when as a matter of fact all the spearing that is done in the lake during the two months of open season, viz: January and February is not a drop in the bucket compared to fishing through the ice with set lines. The law states that any oue person may use not to exceed five set lines. During the winter of 1924-19-25 there were at least a dozen men on

Based upon the inquiries which we are receiving, it would appear that there is some misunderstanding as to the reasons for the order recently is-

The spearing season only lasts two months, whereas the set line fishermen have March and April also, and as we know that Pike spawn in the carly spring, March and April are a great detriment to them, inasmuch air looking for spawning beds the fish become more active, eat more, and the result is the fishermen reap a big harvest, and millions of spawn are thus destroyed. Anyone that has deen very much fishing during January and February know that the Pike are more or less dormant during these months and very few fish are speared.

I do not agree with Mr. Stoelker and cannot enjoy this winter sport that we should close the fishing in Lake Margrethe. We are entitled to this sport by virtue of our spending 12 months in the year here, and it is our good fortune to have a place like this to spend a day now and then.

We gladly share all our recreation with tourists, and they surely are welcome to anything we have to offer gestions on how to conserve our game and fish, but before we take any drastic measures, we might look into the matter a little closer.

"The Company Exquisite" Promises Musical Program of Great Beauty.

THE NEAPOLITAN SERENADERS

A most colorful and attractive musical organization is the Neapolitan Serenaders which is soon to appear here in concert. There are instrumental and vocal selections chosen from the masterpieces of the great composers. There are Gypsy folk songs, Troubadour serenades, Italian street songs and popular ballads of America and Europe, as well as best-loved melodles from successful American operatias. In all of these the violin, the piano, voice and harp unite in artistic achievement. David Holland, the violinist, is a master of his instrument. He was solo violinist with the famous Moscow Artists, who recently made a transcontinental tour of the United States and Canada, playing the largest cities.

Margaret Rosselli, harpiste, and Frances Gorton, planist and novelty musical entertainer, round out the company. One part of the program is given in evening dress, another in Italian Troubadour costume and still another in Colonial costume. Through the whole program wafts an atmosphere of sunny Italian slopes.

This is one of the best musical organizations touring the Lyceum, made up of the best type of professional musicians.

undaunted by his approaching court-martial for insubordinate utterances, Col. William Mitchell appeared before the aircraft board last week and repeated and elaborated on his charges that obstinacy and inefficiency of high army and navy officials have rendered the United States utterly deficient in defense. He read a prepared statement in nine sections, the main points of which are thus summarized: Development of air power has made the chief weapon of national de fense, navies and armies becoming subordinate and auxiliary to it. As airships can destroy any surface ships, the submarine becomes the backbone of the navy. The army, unchanged in constituent elements, will function as the last line of defense when the air and sea forces have failed to stop the enemy, or offensively only when control of the air permits transport of troops at sea. Anti-aircraft guns are ineffective and always will be, crippling only a very small percentage of planes. The United States has no air forces worth mentioning and if in-volved in war today would need from three to five years to develop an adequate air force properly equipped. Great Britain could invade America with a thousand planes in eight or ten days and a few days later would reach heart of the country; and Japan could invade America by way of Alaska In future wars the nation losing con trol of the air will capitulate to deso lation by unrestricted air attack. An adequate air and submarine force would make this country invulnerable to attack, and the cost would be but a fraction of that of the army and navy at present. Finally, the United States hould have a department of national defense, comprising the navy, army, civil aviation and aircraft manufac The mission of the land, sea and air orces, said Mitchell, should be def-nitely stated by law. That is:

and air force, and a department of "The army to be charged with the

"The navy to be charged with the sile throwing weapons from the shore or effective aircraft operations from

"The air force to be charged with the complete defense of operations and the aerial attack of all enemy targets on sea and land."

To the self-asked question why the air service is in such sad plight, Colonel Mitchell replied:

"Because air matters are entrusted to the army and the navy which are handled and governed and dominated by non-flying officers. They not only know next to nothing about aviation, but regard it merely as an auxiliary of their present activities and not as a main force in the nation's military equipment. Their testimony regarding uir matters is almost worthless, some-times more serious than this,"

Next day Colonel Mitchell continued his attack and criticized the navy for the Shenandoah disaster and the failure of the Hawaii flight. Then he was questioned at length by various memhers of the hoard and finally Chairman Morrow asked Admiral Fletcher of the navy and General Harbord of the army if they desired to put any questions to the witness. To the surprise of everyone, both declined to do any cross examining. Mitchell himself was evidently disappointed.

According to the most popular ver sion, the thing is supposed to have happened in a remote courthouse of Missouri. A resident of the Ozark mountains whose reputation was none of the best, had been on trial on the charge of horse stealing. The jury promptly returned a verdict of guilty without recommendation for mercy Taking into consideration the past record of the offender, his honor on "It is my Intention to sentence you to at least eight years at hard labor in state's prison. Now then, before sentence is formally pronounced, I shall listen to anything you may have to say in your behalf."

He paused for a reply. After a mo ment of consideration the offender spoke:

"Well," he sald, "I don't know ez I've got ary thing to say only this— it strikes me that you folks 'round this here cote house air purty tol-er'ble d-n liberal with other people's time.'

Two typical wayfarers of the Bow ery, penniless and tattered and with their feet half out of their wrecked shoes, were limping through one of the crooked streets of Chinatown One of them found a small vial containing cocaine which, presumably, had been dropped by a dope fiend.

The tramps had heard many times of the stimulating and invigorating effects of this drug. Also, from association with habitues they knew the common method of taking it. They decided to experiment, finder uncorked poured a quantity of the white crystals into the palm of his hand and sniffed the stuff up his nostrils. His companion finished the bottle.

The effect was magical and almost instantaneous. They straightened their bent figures, drew their rags about them and stepped out briskly. Presently one of them spoke. There was a bloom in his cheeks and his eyes glistened:
"I've about decided," he said, "to

The Wail of a Suffering Soul Once upon a time there was presented in a New York theater a historical drama by a new dramatist—a play so bad that even the critics didn't have the heart the next morn-ing to tell the whole truth about it. At the end of the third act, when the suffering audience were writhing in their seats, a stout man who had been patronizing a bootlegger began to utter loud cries. A number of kindly disposed persons took up the chorus and in another minute the miswhat he thought was a curtain call and was standing before the foot-lights bowing his appreciation and mumbling inarticulate words of

When the author had withdrawn himself the stout man's companion turned upon him angrily.

Roy McCardell, the humorist, went broad. On the way across he grew quite chummy with Louis Tracy, the English novelist, who was returning nome after a visit to America.

One morning in the smoking-room when the voyage was almost ended, Tracy passed and bowed to Mc-Cardell. A serious-looking Englishman witnessed this exchange of greetings and, after thinking the thing over for a time, approached McCardell.

"I beg your pardon," he said, "but you seem to know that gentleman who just passed. He and I are sharing the same stateroom, and this morning he got up first and by mistake put on my boots. He's wearing them now. Do you know him?" "Yes," said McCardell, "That's Louis Tracy."

"Tracy, the novelist?" said the Englishman. "I admire his works immensely, I wonder if I might meet him!"

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1925 TOURISTS SPEND 80 MILLION IN WESTERN MICH.

Figures just received at this offic show that resorters spent $80,000,000 in Western Michigan last year. We have no way of knowing how much was spent in Eastern Michigan, but the amount was no small sum, indeed. Results in this eastern half, just as they have been in the western half, did not come about without some effort somewhere.

In this we cannot refrain from men tioning the Eastern Michigan Tourist association and the NorthEastern Mich. Development bureau in praise of the fine publicity they have been everlastingly sending out to the people of other states, and everyone should know that results have been nost gratifying.

Michigan is beginning to awaken to the fact that it has the greatest in America. A few people have of Michigan's great possibilities for ters. bringing riches right to our very doors. Michigan's fine lakes and streams, climate and water, are just what the people of other states have been looking for and it is up to us to get all the benefit from this that it is possible to get, by cooperating in every possible way with the Development bureau and the Tourist association in giving Eastern Michigan all the publicity we can. Every adult person in this half of Michigan should be a member of these associations and contribute to their treasuries so that the publicity may continue and

The Eastern Michigan Tourist association is working in conjunction with the NorthEastern Michigan Development bureau, which is pushing the agricultural resources very largely, but both are functioning 100% in the interests of the citizens, and especially the property owners of this part of the state.

No business can properly function without funds and in this our Board of Supervisors can directly assist by subscribing such quota as our county has been allotted—$350, which is small enough. We are certain that such action would meet the approval of property owners generally. And further individually we can show our appreciation by affiliating with these bureaus as members.

Eastern Michigan is planning to spend $10,000 for publicity this year; Western Michigan is planning to spend $100,000. Eastern Michigan should be furinshing more money for publicity work. The tourist crop is the richest asset that Eastern Michigan can boast. Publicity is the seed is for us to make every person who comes to these parts feel that he is welcome, that we want him herewant him to enjoy our natural resources and that we want him to have a fine time and come again. Let's so nicely started. It means honestly earned dollars to Michigan, and rest, health and pleasure for many thous ands of outsiders.

THE CHURCH DRY REPORT

Comment on the Church Dry Report has been almost as varied as the number of phases on the question of naanalyze. On the one side the "drys" see in the report a necessity for renewed interest in the enforcement of the law now a part of the Federal Constitution. They realize that in many respects the law has been openly violated, but do not believe there is a single situation that cannot be improved upon with the passing years. On the other hand, the "wets point to some of the flagrant viol ations brought out by the report as showing that prohibition cannot be enforced in this country as a national unit and that there should be some liberal modifications of the present

Perhaps the greatest benefit to be derived from the report is the manner in which it hase pointed out certain phases of the present situation. Na tional prohibition is still on trial in this country and it is too early to expect to bring about a strictly dry nation in the face of millions of peo ple now opposed to the amendment The survey made by the report re veals greater savings deposits in th banks by the working classes, les consumption of liquor than when the nation was wet, nor do they see any reason why the present crime way can be directly charged to prohibition

Those who believed the mere pas age of the law would bring about bone dry nation have found out their mistake. There will be an immediate and determined renewal of effort to educate the people to the benefits of prohibition in the belief that when the nation actually becomes dry in sentiment it will be dry in practice.

Neither in personnel nor equipment is the present air force adequate, he declared, asserting that development of aircraft in America has been "slow and inefficient." He reiterated his demand for a department of national de-fense, with the air force as a separate unit with the army and navy. This, he asserted, should be done by the next congress. "The present aircraft equipment consists of 12 old worn-out pursuit planes and 22 old bombers. All the rest are DH-4 Liberty engine planes which are old, worn out and dangerous to fly," he said.

The United States now stends exposed to an air attack which could reach our cities and inflict serious damage from both the Atlantic and the Pacific, he asserted.

THE FOG HORNS

Far away from many of the world's places, and yet convenient to places which it is near, is a jagged, rocky, wlid coast. Its rocks, have never been taught to stand in regular, straight ines, and Nature, busy with so many things, has let them have their own way. Nature is an indulgent mother She lets so many of her children do as they choose, the winds, the citable snowflakes, the fogs, the rains, the sleet storms.

So have the rocks behaved as they chose, standing here and standing there. Rough edges have not been smoothed. Those that wanted to lie down in the water and only be noticed when lighthouses or buoys gave warning, have been given their way. Some have gone far out into the water, eager, it would seem, to find out what lay beyond, to feel the wilder ean outside the coves and bays and barbors.

washing them with her cold, salty, oamy breakers. Sometimes she has dashed so hard over them that other, lesser objects could not have stood her terrible ways.

But the rocks have loved all this. They have stood as firmly as ever, answering the ocean's roarings with echoes and with shouts.

"Come along," they have shouted. Come along and dash over us. Hurry, hurry, rush and tumble and fall with your great mighty tumbles, old ocean. We enter into the spirit of your game. We may stand still on quiet, windless days and let your waters fall softly over us, or playfully into our caves and hollows and caverns. We may let the sun shine down on those of us that stay above the water, or we may let the blue green of your deep love liness always keep us covered where we lie under your surface."

Many has been the terrible storm the rocks have seen and been a part! of too, for that matter. Many has been the lonely wreck of a vessel they have And when morning has come or calm has come again-they have shown neither by sign nor sound that they had ever been unything other than beautiful and screne. But greater than the storms, more thick blanket,

"Now," the fog has said. "you can't see anything. You can't see outside my blanket, can you?"

And the rocks have stood up in the thick, thick greyness and have uttered not a single word,

The ocean has washed over them nd the ocean could only feel the rocks and the rocks could only feel the ocean. They could not see each other.

But the and sung in their clanging, hell-like way, steadily, steadily; steadily; "Reware. Clang-clang. Beware. Clang-clang. The rocks are here. Beware Clang-clang."

And the lighthouses, hidden in the log's great blanket have boomed the fog horns.

"Boom-boom," the foghorns have shouted in their low, deep, muffled voices. But their voices have risen shove and through the fog and have their blessed warnings to fishing schooners, vessels, big boats, little boats.

"Boom-b-o-o-m, fog, f-o-g, f-o-g, fog,-fog, fog-fog, f-o-g,f-o-g. Thick, thick, thick, fog, fog, fog." Strangers coming to live along the coast for a day or so or a month or so have thought the forhorns forlornsounding horns. Depressing they have called them.

But the people who live along the coast take new hope in their hearts as the foghorns boom forth and their loneliness and fear of the great fogs and for those who belong to them who are out in its grey thickness is lightened by the constant booming and clang-clanging For they know the way of the sea and the way of the rocks and the way of fogs, and the foghorns are the great, tireless hopes and comfort of a coast people.

Deep and strong are the fogs. Peo-ple cannot see each other's houses. They jump into each other along the rocky paths, or the rocky streets. The fogs are so great and so powerful, so But the foghorns are the blessed sounds that give relief to the hearts of those who live by or on the sea.

Ask Dad-See If He Knows

Father and mother are always thinking of your welfare—there isn't a thing within reason they wouldn't do for you. But they may unknowingly have been risking your life every day. When you are at dinner tonight with dad, ask him this question:

"Dad, is our school firesafe?"

Perhaps he won't be able to answerhe may not know.

Ask dad if he knows that somewhere in the country aschoolhouse burns every day. Ask him if he knows that one-third of all the schoolhouses in the country are nothing better than firetraps - maybe your school is one of them.

Of course dad knows that buildings can be built that will not burn. They are being built everywhere, every day.

If your school is firesafe, you're lucky. If it isn't, ask dad what he is going to do about it. You have a right to know.

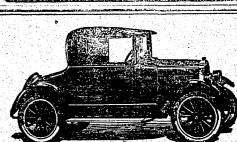

The highest type of firesafe construc-tion is concrete. Our illustrated booklet 'Concrete Schoolhouses' contains a wealth of information on firesafe construction with which every parent ought to be familiar. Write today for your free copy.

HEALTH NOTES

The junior Red Gross army is the warpath. They are attacking the enemy of our people. The enemy has already carried off two or three citizens, not as prisioners but as victims, Is it not time our citizens rose up and defended our rtown? If a foreign enemy came into the land and killed 3 of our citizens, the boys in khaki would soon be on their trail, the sherwould soon be on their train, the sheriiff would have a posse out to hunt the murderers. Dysentary and typhoid or paratyphoid are carried by files.
"In the body of a single fly 6,000,000
germs have been found", says Hygiea. Dysentary is especially hard on children so if you love your chil-dren fight the flies. The Junior Red Cross Army is 300 strong not count-ing the High school and if they attack the fly with their teachers as captains the fly must disappear, from Grayling. Do not say the win-ter will kill the flies for some manage to live and reproduce over winter and in the spring are right here to start new families and "flies is flies". of the structure and tons of earth, 670,500 by the end of July and 1,096,-181,249,310,720,000,000,000,000 by the end of Sentember. Let us kill every fly this fall and start out again in the spring with the first one that makes his appearance and keep up the campaign till Grayling is a flyless

There is no other way to acquire the intestinal disease except by eating or drinking the germs. Flies get the germs on their feet or in their bodies and bring them to our food. Flies are not particular where they go being very fond of the filthiest things. Flies never wash their feet. They love to crawl over our cake and other food and to take a swim in our class of milk. Kill them! That is the out-means of combating dysentary. Be careful to wash all food (even an apple you may eat between meals that is not being cooked. Keep food covered, don't let the flies light on it of Gems Worth $750.000 especially the babies food or food cin-

In New York where there used to be many deaths among infants in summer now that the mothers learned summer now that the mothers learned to follow these simple instructions there is hardly a death from summer complaint or cholera infantum among children. The fly is the babies especial enemy.

When these diseases are around we should protect ourselves by every means we can, be careful not to eat any food that will irritate the intestnot to lower iur resistance in any not to lower iur resistance in any way. People whose resistance is lowered by the use of alcohol recover less easily from intestinal disease when it attacks them. Eating of all-day suckers and other sweets on the streets is dangerous because either the food or our hands may be contaminated and also because it is irritating to the stomach when taken between meals. Cleanliness, good sense and general good health is our best protection.

Destroy the breeding place of the flies. Where there are outdoor toilets use plenty of ashes or lime or lets use plenty of ashes or lime or even sand in them every day. Typhoid may be prevented also by vaccination, which will last three years It is used in the army and where 122 died of typhoid out of 1000 with its use only 1 out of 1000 died of typhoid, a saving of 122 lives. The deaths from typhoid in the Spanish-American war were 33 per cent times as many as in the World war with the use of typhoid vaccine, which harms use of typhoid vaccine, which harms no one. The last figure equals 143, 675 bushels of flies, figures are taken from Civic Biology—Hodge & Daw-

CAILLAUX TAKES U.S. DEBT PLAN TO PARIS

Secretary Mellon Asks $40, 000,000 per Annum Until 1930.

Washington,-Negotiations for the funding of the French war debt of $4,200,000,000, which have been going on for eight days, were suspended sine die when Joseph Caillaux, minister of finance, ugreed to take back to his government a temporary proposal unde by Andrew Mellon, secretary of the treasury.

This suggestion provides that France pay $40,000,000 annually to the United States for the next five years.
At the expiration of that period, or at any time during its course, the French government would resume the discussion of the definite funding of its obligations, taking up the pourparlers from the point where they are now Secretary Mellon's proposal was presented to the French commission after the French terms for settlement had been pronounced unacceptable.

The American offer which M. Caillaux will carry back amounts to an the total French debt, with accrued interest, as it now stands, at over $4,000,000,000, for five years. The annuities of $40,000,000 in reality represent only an addition of $20,000,000

as France has been paying $20,000,000 annually in interest at 5 per cent on the A. E. F. war stocks she acquired $407,000,000 in 1919. Mr. Mellon's offer is admittedly only a stopgap to prevent the total of the dect with accruing interest rolling up to a greater grand total.

Mrs. Woodrow Wilson in New Romance, Is Report

Paris.—A possible remance, in which the names of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson and Dr. Sterling Ruffin of Washington, D. Rumors of the impending engagement of Doctor Ruffin and Mrs. Wilson brought the following statement from close companion of the former Presi dent's widow: "Mrs. Wilson adheres to the policy

PARAGRAPHS CONCERNING MICHIGAN

(By Ed. A. Nowack)

Lansing- Electrification of Michigan is proceeding at the rate of 6,429 customers each month, reports say. Last year saw added 77,157 new customers now being served by Michigan electric companies.

The price for iron and steel scraps is soaring and business experts see in this an indication that business, in-dustrially, is getting better. One De-troit manufacturer last month put 700,000 tons of scraps on the market

The Consumers Power Company serves 125 Michigan cities and towns. It has twenty thousand customers, serves two thousand essential-industries in 32 counties covering 45.000 square miles with a population of 800,000 that benefits from the serv-ice. The company has 37 power ice. The company has 37 power plants, totaling a quarter of a million horsepower including 23 water power plants interconnected by 1,300 miles of superpower tower lines and 9,000 miles of city lines. It has eight gas plants and 3,000 employees.

Various cities now are planning for rural parks. Persons are donating land outside the city limits to various municipalities with the understanding that parks are to result. The auto is making such parks accessible to the city folks.

Efforts are being made to secure another road through the exclusive Grosse Point district along the shores of Lake St. Clair. The common folks want to ride along in easier comfort and envy the millionaire's elegant mansions. The millionaires object.

Missaukee county is one of the few counties in the state that has never bonded for good roads but pays as she goes. Her 83 miles of trunk lines were mostly county roads at first. She has nearly 100 miles of fine gravel roads in addition.

The city of Manistee at one time is believed to have occupied the bed of an old salt sea. There is enough salt in the Manistee district to serve the nation for the next 25 million years.

City police records throughout Michigan indicate that the police and fire alarm signal boxes along the curbs are favorite items for motorists to knock down.

There is no lost motion or idle time in Henry Ford's factory fire fighting departments. The fire fighters are stationed at steel drill presses 20 feet from their fire truck so they can keep out of mischief during the time there is no call. When the alarm sounds the boys just flop around and rush or the poparatus. or the upparatus.

During the last four years Detroit's school population has increased from 239,712 to 313,973.

TOP O' MICHIGAN POTATO SHOW

Almost every business and profession is organized around a conven tion, show or some other event which brings together those engaged in it and gives them an opportunity to compare notes, learn the latest developments in their line of endeavor, renew their respect for their chosen work, and get new inspiration thru contact with their fellowcratesmen. The furniture dealers have their annual shows and conventions, the automanufacturers theirs, the hardware dealers have theirs, the barbers, the undertakers, the doctors, the men of science, etc.—they all gather together annually for those reasons. A few weeks ago a traveller noticed a crowded on this wife, to Laura Ette Wagner which said mortgage was recorded in the office of the register of deeds of Crawford County, Michigan, in Liber H of mortgages on page 364, on November 26, 1923, and Whereas the amount claimed to be undertakers, the doctors, the men of science, etc.—they all gather together and taxes, and $35, attorney's fee provided by law, which is the whole amount claimed to be unpaid on said mortgage; and no suit or proceedings having been instituted at law to recover the debt now remaining secured by said mortgage or any compare notes, learn the latest de

The Top O' Michigan Potato and Apple Show offers a similar opportunity to those engaged in the business of producing apples and potatoes in Northern Michigan. Here is a chance to compare notes on methods of production, to meet neighbors in friendly competition, and profit thereby, to discuss the latest developments with specialists who are making a scientific study of that business, and get a renewed faith in the dignity of the business of farming. The production of a quality article is the only key to agricultural prospetity in northern Michigan, Granted that this fact is recognized by everyone, it is still true that a large majority off our growers do not know WHAT a "quality article" looks like nor do they know HoW to produce it. These are some of the lessons which can be learned at the Top O Michigan Potato and Apple Show.
